whats the point of showing this, than blacking out half of it with inconclusive texts

Left side was the original redacted deposition, right is the unredacted text messages so you can fill in the blanks. What's redacted on the right is phone numbers, emails and other personal contact info so who is Dana White texting back and fourth with? Lorenzo? if so are you saying Lorenzo snitched out Dana White by releasing these texts?

John S. Nash

@heynottheface · Oct 3

Snitched? They were compelled to release these by the court. These are the unredacted exhibits filed today in the antitrust suit.

Hey John. Was hoping you could answer a question for me please. The window for everything that's allowed into the antitrust case, when did it start and when did it finish? TY

The original class period is from Dec 2010 until Dec 2014 or the "Scheme" ends. Plaintiffs claimed it was still ongoing as of June 2017. That's the period any damages would cover. Material from before that can be entered as evidence.

Everybody's getting poisoned by this idea that the UFC's and evil monster. And Dana is terrible. I think you're all ungrateful bitches. Without these guys money and time put into this company you will not even have a sport to appreciate right now. Life's not fair deal with it Dana is terrible and the UFC has a long history of being monstrous. And what you should have said is "life isn't fair, especially for those working inside a monopoly".

- 4 4 18
- MMAFA @MMAFA · Oct 4
Well said!
- Remember—you aren't working within a monopoly—instead, you are deprived of the opportunity to compete in a legitimate sport by a monopolist.
- In a legitimate sport you have agency.

- Oriel Melwani @OrielMelwani · Oct 4
Again with this monopoly nonsense, there are over 20 companies in the United States alone promoting MMA fights, and profitable! Where is the monopoly?? Even Dana goes to those shows to sit and watch those fights. I just don't get it selling this nonsense to the fans. #bitterppl

The legal standard for monopoly is not the same as the dictionary. Control of 70% or more of a market is typically viewed as enough to have monopoly power.

I'm pretty sure the spirit of this message is that they're sticking it to a promotion (bellator), not a fighter (melendez). Am I missing something here?

To me it sounds like Dana is complimenting Lorenzo for fucking over Gilbert & some other fighter over contract talks!

So ferritta is congratulating Dana for taking big time fighters from bellator? How is this bad?

Other way around. Dana congratulating Lorenzo. I don't see the problem either
- 1 1
- Cameron @forkboy64 · Oct 4
Well, it's an antitrust suit. Admitting in a text to your business partner about not letting potential opposition get any traction has relevance in such a lawsuit.

John what are we missing here? They are celebrating the signing of Melendez and the victory of keeping talent from Bellator - while rather explicitly saying they are trying to bury Bellator-is that a problem? That sounds like the attitude one would expect against competitors no?
